Not illustrated. 1896 Excerpt: . of 1897, and is compiled from the reports of Joseph D. Weeks to the United States Geological Survey, Division Mineral Resources, with additional statistics for 1896 and 1897. The greatly lamented death of Mr. Weeks, on the 26th of December, 1896, removed from the industrial world one of the best statisticians, and one whose contributions to the manufacture of coke were always especially recognized and appreciated. The average value of the coal used in making coke in 1895 was 87 cents per ton; in 1896, 79 (5-10 cents; and in 1897, 83 cents. There were no new ovens built in 1896 or 1897. Mr. Jas. D. Hillhouse, State Mine Inspector, makes the production of coke in 1896, 1,689,307 tons, and the number of ovens 4,494. As of interest in connection with coke and coking operations, there is given here an article, by the author, on...
