Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Library of Historic Characters and Famous Events, Vol. 1 of 10: Of All Nations and All Ages The rapid growth of large collections of books, public and private, has compelled all classes to recognize the necessity of selecting and condensing from these vast treasuries of knowledge. Standard histories must be re-examined, both with reference to the importance of the events and the excellence of the narrative. A large part of the most famous works loses its interest by lapse of time or the progress of enlightenment, while a smaller part, from its intrinsic merit, steadily increases in value. Certain events and certain characters become more conspicuous by their true grandeur, while others, which were deemed their rivals, sink into insignificance. None can be better aware of the absolute necessity of this revision and condensation than those who have charge of the immense accumulations of books in the great libraries of the world. While these institutions serve important uses as treasure-houses in which literature and knowledge are accumulated and from which they may be diffused...
