For the truth and accuracy of his descriptions of its modern inhabitants Lane still remains unequalled, but he has almost exclusively confined himself to the people of the capital; on the subject of country life, and especially on Upper Egypt, we possess merely the reports of travellers. In the whole of Upper Egypt only a few Europeans have hitherto settled, and these are almost exclusively Greek traders, who are not in a position to utilize their experiences by giving them to the world; still less is this to be expected of the...
