Martin Olav Sabo, Chairman, presiding. Members present: Representatives Sabo, Coyne, Kasich, Shays, Smith of Texas, Allard, Hobson, Lazio, and Smith of Michigan. Chairman Sabo. The House Budget Committee is in session for a hearing on income structure and employment issues in America today. I would like to welcome the distinguished members of our panel. Our witnesses this morning, all experts on labor compensation, are: Mrs. Audrey Freedman, an economic and human resources consultant from New York City; Robert J.Gordon, Professor of Economics at Northwestern University; and Marvin Kosters, resident scholar and Director of Economic Policy Studies at the American Enterprise Institute. For several years, I have been very concerned about the growing disparities in income between the average wage earner and the upper income executive and professional class in this country. As I have discussed...
