With all this natural wealth of resources there follows as a matter of course, that we have good transportation facilities by land and water. Added to this, we are an aggressively advertising nation. Consult the columns of the daily paper, the weekly or monthly magazine and you will find that the producer and the merchant are advertising their goods for sale wherever steam or electricity will carry them. To move this great machinery of commerce requites a vast amount of credit, and the bank check is the best adapted instrument of credit that has yet been devised for the purpose. About 95 per cent, of all business in this...
