In the evening B. D. Walsh, the editor of the Entomologist, addressed a very large audience. This was followed by a discussion on cherries, of a very interesting character. What is known as the Maycherry of the West, or sometimes called Early Richmond, was decided to be a native or American seedling, originating near Richmond, Va., from whom the elder Prince took scions to Long Island and christened the true Early Richmond, and Downing committed the error of making it a synonym of Kentish. It is supposed that the French cherry, Donna Maria, may be the same one sent back to us under this new name. At all events the Society decided to call this cherry Early May, and if our French friends lav claim to it, let them prove it. This cherry is the only market cherry...
