I want you to understand the beauty that shines through you when you are walking in faith. I want you to imagine the endless opportunities in this world when you find your strength through the depth of your devotion to Him.This book will help you examine your life and what is most important in it. You will be strengthened, have more assuredness in your Christian walk, and see the beauty that God sees when He looks at you every day. When you give yourself to God, He will guide you to a life of peace and possibility. When you accept His guidance, gifts and love, you will be fulfilled through your faith. ABOUT THE AUTHORAs this is my first book, I researched How to write an author biography and learned that I am to list for you my areas of expertise; my best achievements; my awards, certificates, etc. So here goes. My areas of expertise include falling short of being the person I want to be pretty much every day, but never giving up; finding a song in everything and singing, humming or whistling it incessantly; finding time to be goofy and laugh until I cry; and I am confident that I m the world s greatest list maker bar none. My best achievements are being baptized in Christ, marrying an incredible man, having two mind-blowingly remarkable children, and working constantly to be a good daughter, wife, mother and friend. Any awards and certificates I have...
