Empire, culminated in the time of Nero, who died A. D. 68. (Hi) From this time forward the trade declined till the time of Caracalla, A. D. 217. (iv) From the time of Caracalla it almost entirely ceased. (v) The maritime activity revived again, though slightly, under the Byzantine Emperors. He also infers that the trade under the early Emperors was chiefly in luxuries; under the later ones in industrial products; and under the Byzantines the commerce was with the South-West of India and not with the interior. He moreover differs from those who find an explanation of this fluctuation in the political and social condition of India itself, and the facilities or their absence for navigating the seas; and considers that the cause is to be sought for in the political and social condition of the Romans themselves. We fully agree with...
