Those lines that I before have writ do lie, Even those that said I could not love you dearer: Yet then my judgment knew no reason why My most full flame should afterwards burn clearer. But reckoning Time, whose million accidents Creep in twixt vows, and change decrees of kings, Tan sacred beauty, blunt the sharpest intents, Divert strong minds to the course of altering things; Alas! why fearing of Times tyranny, Might I not then say, Now I love you best, When I was certain o'er uncertainty, Crowning the present, doubting of the rest Love is a babe, then might I not say so, To give full growth to that which still doth grow----- before uncertainty sacred Crowning judgment strong decrees might tyranny . Sample Word Scramble When I consider every thing...
