VII INDIVIDUAL EVANGELISM HENRY WARD BEECHER said, The longer I live the more confidence I have in those sermons preached where one man is the minister and one man is the congregation. This, by the way, is the kind of ministry to which every follower of Christ is called, a ministry in which he can serve with a surprising acceptability and a ministry in which he must serve if the Church is ever to fulfil the mission which became hers when Christ first set her in the world and told her to go and make disciples of all the people in it. Not every Christian can be a great preacher and preach to a great congregation, but every Christian can become a personal worker, an individual evangelist, and perform a mighty ministry for Christ in a personal way if indeed his heart is set on so doing. It is said of Dr. Lyman Beecher that when he was carrying on his great work in Boston and converts in large numbers were coming into the church he was asked by a brother in the ministry how it was that he was able to do so much. He replied, Oh, it is not I that do it; it is my church. I preach on the Sabbath as hard as I can and then I have four hundred church members who go out and preach every day in the week. They are preaching all the time,...
