

Storms of Change

By Matt Carter

Xlibris Corporation. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 102 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.8in. x 0.5in. . . while the world panics around me, Im going to watch the clouds come closer and smile. Storms of Change is a book about personal growth. It looks at where weve been as individuals, where we want to go, and then the cold reality of where we could go if life takes a turn for the worst. It is a book about choices and dreams as told through the eyes of a 21-year old writer. So what sets it apart from other books of poetry Storms of Change is never a book designed to follow in the same vein as other contemporary writers. Those looking for long, elaborate, flowing lyrics should probably look elsewhere. The poetry in this book is intimate, thought-provoking, and hopefully heartwarming. Oftentimes it focuses around a simple idea-such as overcoming disability (Seeing clearly), lost love (Getting the number), or even something as silly watching your Sunday paper heroes grow up (When the comic ends). The title poem is really the culmination of all thoughts and ideas within the book, as it focuses on different facets of self-motivation leading up to...
