Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. When they said I had issues, I told them I had subscriptions. Help make this true by purchasing this book series. I recommend purchasing through Kindle. Soon to be made available on iBooks. Contained within are the writings of one Trevor M. Johnson- notably performed during boredom and within various mental asylums, commitment was against his will. Although there are crimes documented within, and discussions annotated, the Author is not possessed of a criminal nature and is very peaceful- but denies that he has a problem controlling his mental actuations. Accused of thought, he prefers to perceive. There are several diagnoses that are applicable and one that is nominally sexist; although, they may be discussed, the diagnoses will not be revealed to the general public. If a person, or groups of persons, were to use these writings for academic purposes then it would be best to remind their reader(s) that these are the journalsdiaries of a dissident and unwilling patient. Written as absurdly as possible, these writings are not to be taken as a sample of the authors cognitive skills or as a sample of the authors actual writing- in other words it is supposed to be artistic encryption. Although it could be called childish- an inner child is necessary in order to have real fun and to raise pets or children. They do not express the views of any organization, and completely misrepresent the author. Although some of the content may appear threatening, vulgar, or as a declaration of intent- the author assures you it is not. To be more precise: these books are a diary or journal of events that I have had the misfortune to witness. The opinions are intentionally dissidentlf there is any information considered sensitive or infringes upon any copyrights,...
