

Last Bus Out

By Beck McDowell

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 265 pages. The true story of Courtney Miles rescue of over 300 people in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina. While government officials posed for cameras, a boy from the projects with no drivers license stepped up and showed what drive is all about. This enhanced e-book includes over 75 photos and 25 links to videos and newscasts. Visit LastBusOut.com for more information. Last Bus Out tells how Courtney Miles stole a bus, charged past a police roadblock, and argued with a National Guardsman who threatened to lock him in the makeshift jail at the Greyhound Bus Station. Sick with worry about his missing grandmother, he drove his passengers to safety, then went back into the city at midnight to help others. His adventure would ultimately lead to starting his life over on the opposite end of the country, far away from the three women he loves - the mother who abused him, the grandmother who taught him to survive, and the girlfriend who would betray him. Last Bus Out chronicles Courtneys life alone while his mother was repeatedly jailed for selling drugs. At seven he woke up on Christmas Eve with a gun in...
