Cap Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Pat Shrader, Kacper Lengiewicz (illustrator). 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A collection of stories/essays/poems centered around the general theme of crazy, which may range from the clinical definition to various social contexts. Crazy is so many different things to so many different people. Say the word crazy to one person and you may see a smile pass her lips; say it to someone else and you may see him cry. It s a tough subject to address. Yet I ve tackled it here, in several graces and guises. From a child who screams all the way to the operating room because she has changed her mind to a town made famous because it murdered innocent people; from an old man haunted by his life s bad deeds as he nears his end to a young mom pushed too far in defending her only child from another bullying child; from one who realizes she has to learn to forgive or be driven to a dark place to a delusional homeless man who may be more together than anyone realizes; from a high school girl determined to stick out a miserable basketball season to a college freshman who must decide whether she will remain the victim of date rape or become a survivor or maybe even something else by the time all is said and done. Other characters and their maladies to watch for include a 16-year-old girl who issues a warning because she feels like she s losing her grip and isn t sure what to do; someone who cries for something she can t name; a child who hates coloring; a 95-year-old woman on her birthday; a man apparently unsatisfied enough with...
