Excerpt: . how he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit. 1 Now these words are by all the Gospels put into the mouth of John the Baptist, and not of Jesus,2 but the author of the Acts seems to put them into the mouth of Jesus at the beginning of the work,3 and their repetition here is only an additional proof of the fact that the episode of Cornelius, as it stands before us, is not historical, but is merely his own composition. The whole of this narrative, with its complicated series of miracles, is evidently composed to legitimate the free reception into the Christian Church of Gentile converts and, to emphasize the importance of the divine ratification of their admission, Peter is made to repeat to the Church of Jerusalem the main incidents which had...

I just began reading this pdf. It is actually writter in straightforward words instead of hard to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
